

If you're marriage or other relationship isn't all you hoped for, we invite you to watch the movie Fireproof and then take the 40-day challenge to make positive changes in your life. Take the Dare!

Movie Showtime's:

Sat., Feb 6th at 7:00 p.m.

Sun., Feb. 7th at 3:00 p.m.

Thurs., Feb. 11th at 7:00 p.m.

We can seat up to 14 people in the youth area theater room, so please call the office to make a reservation. The movie is 118 minutes, rated PG. Popcorn and drinks will be served.

After viewing the movie, you'll have the option to order the Love Dare Workbook (about $10.00) and take the 40-day challenge to improve your marriage or other relationships in your life.

At this time we are planning this as a self-guided program without any ongoing gatherings for study or discussion. However, if enough people are interested in doing the challenge as a group we can certainly discuss it after the movie. At the end of the 40-days, we will gather together to discuss how our challenge went, what we learned and how our relationships have changed.

Synopsis of Fireproof

A heroic fireman locked in a failing marriage, accepts his father's challenge to take part in a 40-day experiment designed to teach both husband and wife the true meaning of commitment in this faith-based marriage.

When he's battling blazes, Capt. Caleb Holt (Kirk Cameron) adheres to the old firefighter's adage about never leaving your partner behind; back at home, it's an altogether different story. Caleb and his wife Catherine (Erin Bethea) have been married for seven years, but lately arguments over career, housework, finances, and outside interests have driven the once-happy couple hopelessly apart.

Just as Caleb and Catherine prepare to officially dissolve their marriage, Caleb's father John (Harris Malcolm) presents his son with a most unusual challenge: commit to a 40-day experiment called "The Love Dare," and take one last shot at saving his marriage. While at first Caleb agrees to take a chance on "The Love Dare," the discovery that it's closely tied in with his parent's newfound faith causes him to momentarily reconsider. Still, Caleb carries on with the experiment despite being constantly rejected by his skeptical, embittered wife.

When Caleb asks his father how he can be expected to love someone who refuses to give him a fair chance, John tells his son that this is precisely the same love that God shows for humankind. Now, with a little help from above, the man who makes headlines for saving lives will fight to be a hero to the one person who matters most -- his wife.

About The Love Dare

Too many marriages end when someone says "I've fallen out of love with you" or "I don't love you anymore." In reality, such statements reveal a lack of understanding about the fundamental nature of true love.

The Love Dare, as featured in the new movie Fireproof, is a forty-day guided devotional experience that will lead your heart back to truly loving your spouse while learning more about the design, nature, and source of true love.

Each day's entry discusses a unique aspect of love, presents a specific "dare" to do for your spouse (some will be very easy, others very challenging), and gives you a journaling area to chart the progress that you will be making.

It's time to learn the keys to finding true intimacy and developing a dynamic marriage.

Take the dare!

Please contact Karen between 1 pm - 3 pm in the office at 825-8786 or by email at communications.ststephens@gmail.com for more information.